GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Concerning the fast approaching Bennings meeting, the New York Sun of last Monday said:

"Two weeks from tomorrow the racing season will open in the east with the spring meeting of the Washington Jockey Club at Bennings. Many horses that have been racing this winter at New Orleans and San Francisco will be seen at Bennings, together with racers now being trained at local tracks. Judging from the list of entries, the Washington meeting will be more interesting than ever before. The recent heavy storms have made it a difficult matter to get the Bennings track in shape for early training gallops, but it is hoped that fair weather will prevail during this week and next so that there may be no more drawbacks for the track superintendent. The many improvements begun last winter at Bennings, including the new grand stand, have been completed, and the track will probably be pronounced one of the best appointed race courses in America. The grand stand has had many improvements. The betting ring has been widened its entire length, so that crowding will be unusual unless on state occasions. A new field stand has been erected, and it is so situated that every part of the track may be seen from it. The club house, secretary's office and jockeys' room have all been lavishly equipped. The allotment of weights for the Bennings Spring Handicaps has caused general satisfaction, and some high class sport as a result is looked for. Odom, Burns, Wonderly, Cochran, Lyne, Shaw and other noted jockeys have engagements to ride at Bennings, which is an indication that a number of the big stables will be represented."

Sydney Paget and John J. McCafferty have taken subscriptions in the Saratoga Special, swelling the total to twenty-four, one more than last year. Their subscriptions, which reached the Saratoga Association's offices several days ago, were entirely unexpected and very much elated Secretary Harry K. Knapp and his assistants.

Mr. Paget's name has not appeared on a Metropolitan program since 1899, when W. C. Whitney's horses were running in his name. He got together a promising stable of young horses last summer by patronizing the yearling sales of the great southern and western breeding establishments and will campaign them this summer with Mr. Whitney's horses.

The subscription of Mr. McCafferty indicates that the Texas turfman has at Louisville a stronger band of two-year-olds than it was popularly supposed he owned. Mr. McCafferty was a liberal purchaser at last summer's sales, but it was generally supposed last fall that his purchases had not turned out well. McCafferty is taking advantage of the propitious weather and is rapidly bringing his horses into shape at Churchill Downs. He will arrive in the east in time for the Aqueduct meeting with a well-seasoned outfit.—Exchange.

Johnny Lamle, whose fame as a rider early in the nineties racegoers will readily recall, announces that he will both train and ride for the stable of Lamle & Ham next season. At present the stable occupies the old Beard quarters at the Brighton Beach track and comprises the following seven horses: Mizpah, b. g., 8, by Faverdale—Amulet; Lindsey Murray and The Beggar, both three-year-olds; Labor, whose one race in W. Lakeland's name last year proved so great a disappointment to the rail birds; McAnna, a four-year-old maiden by Dr. MacBride—Roma, which has never faced the flag, and two two-year-olds, one a bay colt and the other a chestnut colt by Lazzarone. Lamle reports from sixty to seventy horses now stabled at the track. In the stable of William Lakeland, who has seventeen, mainly two-year-olds, he says there is some very highly thought of material. He also esteems several in the string of Charley Oxx, who has six in charge. The three-year-old bay filly Ascension, by Ben Strome—Adora, is particularly forward.—Morning Telegraph.

J. B. Haggin has received word from his Rancho del Paso Stud, in California, that the great mare Firenze, by Glenelg, has foaled a bay filly by Watercress, the sire of Water Color and Nasturtium. This filly is the first foal Firenze has had by the Springfield stallion. She is superbly bred. Her maternal grand dam, Florida, was a full sister to Hindoo. Margerique by Order—Margerine, has foaled a chestnut filly by Watercress, a full sister to Nasturtium, the champion two-year-old of last year and W. C. Whitney's English Derby candidate this season. The Hanover—Mollie L. mare Tongese (a full sister to Ben Holladay), has dropped at Elmendorf Stud a chestnut colt by Order. This youngster is a full brother to the redoubtable High Order, one of the best two-year-olds of the season of 1899.

It is said by a Cincinnati newspaper that the Newport racetrack will hold a running meeting this spring. "The exact date of the opening day will be announced in the near future. It was thought by many that because Newport did not apply to the Western Jockey Club for dates that it meant that the gates would remain closed this season. Another view was taken of the matter, and that was that an outlaw meeting would be held, with a foreign book. Recent developments show that both of the deductions were wrong. Manager Fowler has right along insisted that a meeting would be held over the Queen City course, but refused to say anything further. Even at the present time he adheres to this course, but from other sources comes the information that the track will be opened in the near future, and that the meeting will continue for an indefinite period."

"Counsellor Bill" Brien has in training at Lexington a number of horses belonging to H. T. Oxnard and other owners, the list being as follows: Cross Ties, br. g., 5, by King Eric—Almere. South Elkhorn, ch. c., 3, by Julien—Mattie Irwin. Mary Greenway, b. f., 3, by St. Saviour—Mercedes. Hemlock, ch. c., 2, by Hermance—Lady Hayden. Hegira, blk. f., 2, by Hermance—Sweet Genevieve. Bed Rock, ch. c., 2, by Spendthrift—Gelida. Behind the Times, b. f., 2, by Blazerock—Springtime.

Sister to Typhoon II., b. f., 2, by Top Gallant—Dolly Varden. Daffo Down Dilly, b. g., 4, by St. Andrew—Daffodil. After the Ball, ch. f., 2, by The Bard—Dawn. Cross Ties and Daffo Down Dilly are being schooled over the jumps, and the string is to be raced over the Chicago tracks.

Mr. William K. Vanderbilt has registered with the Jockey Club the following names for his two-year-olds which are now in training at Memphis under the care of Tom McDowell:

Widow's Mite, ch. f., by Ornament—Charity. Kentish Shrew, ch. f., by Ornament—Maid of Kent II.

Scintillant, ch. f., by Ornament—Alarming. Anklet, ch. f., by Ornament—Maggie Gray. Thoughtless, br. f., by Ornament—Happy Sally II. Sabot, b. f., by Halm—Clatterfeet.

The great broodmare Semper Cara, by King Alfonso—La Sylphide (dam of five stake winners) by Fellowcraft, owned by J. R. and F. P. Keene, has foaled a brown colt by the English sire St. Serf, at Castleton Stud. While the property of the late Marcus Daly, this mare was sent to England to be bred to the son of St. Simon, and this foal is the result of that mating, the Keene's buying her at the Daily closing out sale.

Brazil, the steeplechase jockey, is making a move for reinstatement. He has filed a sworn affidavit setting forth that, while Ellison and others made overtures to him in connection with job steeplechase races, he at all times refused to associate with them or have anything to do with them. His appeal will be considered by the stewards.

He received a lucky start and was waited with to the stretch, where he made good decisively and was easily best. Yrsula, off running, made most of her advantage and showed improvement, due to the dry going. Baltest finished strongly. Sleeping Child tired right at the end. He was badly ridden, but ran in promising style. Myriad Dancer closed a gap from a poor start. Blackthorn ran an extremely bad race.

Scratched—30355 Robert Bonner II., 109.

Winner—Br. g. by Iroquois—Gipsy. Went to post at 2:43. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Mike Strauss fresh from a long rest and showing plenty of speed soon took a long and winning lead, and was decidedly best. Tizona broke flatfooted and was crowded on the far turn, but with clear sailing in the stretch finished with a rush. Rubino ran a good race and is improving, but was tiring at the end. Clarando and Berendos both went well. Mocerito will improve on her showing. Doreen was outrun from the start. Estado quit badly.

Scratched—30958 Senora Caesar, 107.

Nigrette was carried wide on the turn but responded gamely to urging in the stretch and won going away and outclassed her field. Delsegno received a lucky start and displayed fine speed and stamina but was probably lucky to beat Guida. The latter broke slowly and was going fastest at the end. Hudson tired and quit.

Impromptu trailed for a half then raced up to Bragg on the turn and these two drew away in the stretch. Impromptu was swerving at the end and pinned Bragg close to the rail but was best. The latter displayed surprising early speed and was evidently trying his best today. Mac Gyle received a bad looking ride and fell out of it on the backstretch but came strongly in the stretch next to the rail and was jumping on the leaders at the end. Barnato was outclassed. Impromptu was bid up from $500 to $800 by T. Carl and bid in.

The latter got off poorly and went wide on the turns, but took a long lead in the stretch and was caught napping at the end. Colonel Ballantyne was badly handled and repeatedly interfered with. Frangible went unexpectedly well. Galanthus was outclassed and is strictly a mud runner. Duckey tried to make a runaway race of it, but failed at the end of six furlongs.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Endurance by Right, that grand little filly of last year, which gave every promise of earning the place in the race goer's hearts which old Imp occupied, may never face the starter again. The sickness contracted at W. C. Whitney's winter stable at Westbury a week ago, is more serious than at first supposed. The mare suffers with pneumonia, and one of her lungs is half closed. Dr. Sheppard has spent nights with her, and, according to him, it is doubtful if she will ever regain her former health. Whether her lung will be permanently affected, time alone can show.

The famous broodmare Duchess, by Kingfisher—Lady Blessington, the property of Gen. W. H. Jackson, died last Tuesday morning at Belle Meade of a spasm. Duchess was one of the most valuable matrons at Belle Meade, and was the dam of that great race horse Clifford. She also produced Archduke, Jim Head, Utica, Eau Gallie and Watterson. Duchess had a weanling filly foal by her side by Tithonus.

The weights for the St. Patrick Handicap to be run on the opening day of the New Louisiana Jockey Club's spring meeting have been announced. They are of especial interest as showing the handicapper's estimate of the relative merits of the best horses at the track, barring Nitrate. Here are the top weights: Intrusive, 134; Death, 120; Felix Bard, 115; Prince Blazes, 110; Sir Florian, Lennep and The Unknown, 108 each; Mynbeer, 105; Ben Chance, 103; Scarlet Lily and Piederich, each 102. The weights scale down to 87 pounds in the impost allotted Balm of Gilead. Nitrate was not nominated.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Mrs. E. S. Israel is credited with owning the best two-year-old filly in training at Lexington. This good youngster is by Plaudit, her dam being Maid of Kent, dam of the speedy mare Damask. That she is of stake class is generally conceded.

J. O. Keene has bought from Frank Reagan, on private terms, the three-year-old colt O'Hagen. The stables of R. W. Walden & Sons, M. S. Skiles and Frank Reagan have been shipped to Bennings.

Winnie O'Connor, who expects to leave San Francisco for Kentucky with Mr. Featherstone and Julius Bauer, says he will not ride at Memphis, as he had expected.

Mose Goldblatt has returned from Mobile to New Orleans with his Derby candidate, Dr. Hart. Coburn has been engaged to ride the colt in Saturday's big race.
